

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It use to be that we could not even sit down to eat a meal without 2-3 calls interrupting the only time the whole family was together. Since the Indiana Telephone Privacy law, our family time has greatly improved without the annoying interruptions. We have enough advertisement and soliciting in the world without it invading our private life uninvited.